

ZODIAK ENTERTAINMENT

December 2009

To completely strip out, redesign and build six floors of the newly acquired head office. Furnish and move our client in.

Zodiak Entertainment London W12

By KLC

KLC were asked to join Zodiak Entertainment to help transform a six floor run down forty year old building opposite the BBC Television Centre into the new head quarters for their rapidly growing company.

After a number of design meetings and 3d walkthroughs, KLC finalised the plans and work commenced.

The result has been a total transformation of the existing tired building into a modern, clean space with clean lines and an open plan working environment.

Zodiak being a media company, wanted a space that would stand out. They opted for striking white walls with dark charcoal carpet, modern lighting, and stunning furniture to bring their new home right up to date.

The works included refitting eleven washrooms, two lift cars, creation of a modern canteen and kitchen area, transforming the reception, creating five large meeting rooms to include LCD screens, ceiling mounted speakers and Blueraay players, Boardroom with operable wall and adaptive furniture, creative room with bean bags and writable walls, glazed executive offices and furniture for over 160 personnel.

Zodiak and it's internal companies are very pleased with their new space and KLC have continued working with them on additional projects.
